

The Afterlife Story Lab

Where Endings Become Beginnings

Nicholl Fellowship | Austin Film Festival | Screencraft Film Fund | Dances With Films LA

ABOUT THE STUDIO

The Afterlife Story Lab is a creative production studio based in Bristol, England. Founded by Lindsay Clift, the studio develops darkly comic, emotionally sincere stories that explore the spaces between life and death across film, television, publishing, and audio.

Lindsay Clift is a writer and producer whose work has been recognized by the Academy Nicholl Fellowship, Austin Film Festival (Semifinalist), and Screencraft Film Fund (Finalist). The first feature film she produced premiered to a sold-out audience at Dances With Films LA. She develops stories across film, television, publishing, and audio with a sharp eye for the absurd and a soft spot for the haunted.

SIGNATURE STYLE

- Dark comedies and thrillers with emotional depth
- Stories that live in the space between life and death
- Character-driven narratives with literary sensibility
- Original IP across film, television, publishing, and audio

CURRENT PROJECTS

Robyn Hoode

Podcast Series | Tech Thriller / Financial Conspiracy

Her husband built a machine that could change the world. Now she's being hunted for it. A 75-year-old retired schoolteacher uses a clandestine podcast to expose the corruption behind her husband's revolutionary invention.

Arcadian Kids

YA Novel | Adventure / Thriller

Five troubled teens on a last-chance wilderness programme in Montana discover a decades-old conspiracy buried in the mountains, forcing them to survive not just the wild but the dangerous people who want to keep it hidden.

Before We Knew

Vertical Series | Teen Ensemble Drama

Six teenagers in a small coastal town discover that a local tragedy connects their families in ways none of them expected, unraveling secrets their parents buried long ago.

Liver Dancing

Feature Film | Adventure Drama / Dark Comedy

When a struggling actress learns her estranged father has a terminal brain tumor, she reluctantly joins him on a chaotic road trip through California's wild landscapes, only to discover that the reckless dreamer she never understood might hold the key to finding her own courage before it's too late.

Jupiter's Wake

Podcast Series | Absurdist Whodunnit Thriller

After losing her best friend and the only life she has ever known, a habit-bound antiquarian bookseller sets out to track down the wild childhood friend she abandoned decades earlier, only to uncover a trail of strange lives, suspicious characters, and possible danger that reveals more about herself than the mystery she's trying to solve.

Baskethead: Diary of a Dead Woman

Feature Film | Dark Comedy / Southern Gothic

A lonely small-town funeral director who talks to dead animals discovers she might actually be dead herself, and the only way to find out is to stop hiding from the living.

All The Secrets In The World

Limited Series (6-8 Episodes) | Tech Thriller / Existential Drama

A cybersecurity founder discovers her company's anti-spyware technology has evolved into something capable of revealing humanity's darkest secrets. When her husband begins using it to expose injustice, he uncovers one truth that could destroy reality itself.

CONTACT

For press and industry enquiries:

theafterlifestorylab@gmail.com

afterlifestorylab.com

Bristol, Southwest England, UK